More Lettuce!

Remember, in 2 Timothy 4:1-2 we are charged to exhort people, to encourage them strongly to do what's right. The Hortatory Subjunctive is a Biblical Greek word formation that calls others into action with us so we can accomplish more together. Here are some more important exhortations from the letter to the Hebrews which we need to challenge our growth as well.

Let us draw near (Hebrews 10:22). Are you afraid to get too close to God? Why is that? When I'm able to get past the need for absolute control in my life, and I remove what enables sinful tendencies. I'm amazed how reassuring God can be. If we have gone through the process of authentic faith, repentance, and baptism we can experience a journey full of growing closer and closer to God.

Let us hold fast (Hebrews 10:23). As you climb you can find many good hand and foot holds. Once you get to one, hold on tight! When we confess Jesus to others we decide to cling to Him, even when some people want to pull the rug out from under us. God's faithfulness allows me to have that depth and strength of faith.

Let us consider others (Hebrews 10:24). Once we are holding tightly to God we can feel the freedom to climb even further, to heights we never dreamed of before. Spiritually, this means becoming a helper of others, even a mentor for someone new in the faith. It could mean taking on a teaching role in order to motivate others to climb higher spiritually, to help them find the hand and foot holds you used. My faith must move beyond the point of mere self-preservation.

Let us lay aside every weight (Hebrews 12:1). The Hebrews writer gives a long list of witnesses in chapter eleven who made the climb of faith. One characteristic these faithful ones shared was throwing off the extra weight. Sometimes we don't realize who and what is holding us down till we remove those people or things from our lives. I challenge you to try that and see if you experience some spiritual relief. God bless us as we shed the unnecessary weights of this temporal existence together.

False Teachers

2 Peter 2:1-22

- Introduction

- Under the Law of Moses, what was the punishment for false prophets? (Dt. 18:20)
- Did Jesus have strong feelings about hypocritical teachers of the Law? (Mt. 23:15)
- Did Paul pronounce any judgements on false teachers? (Gal. 1:9)

- A Warning (2 Pt. 2:1-3)

- How did Paul describe these deceptive people? (Gal. 2:4; 2 Cor. 11:13).
- Are they hiding in plain sight...? (Acts 20:29-30)
- How do they destroy? (Mt. 7:15).
- How can they possibly have followers? (2 Th. 2:12).

- A Certain Punishment (2 Pt. 2:4-9)

- Apparently, angels can sin and overstep their authority, losing privileges (Jude 1:6).
- The people of Noah's time were warned but continued in sinful ways (Gen. 6).
- Sodom and Gomorrah are case in point for following generations (Gen. 19:23-29).

- A Description (2 Pt. 2:10-19)

- Sensual (Jude 1:4; Rev. 2:20)
- Arrogant (Gal. 5:22-23)
- Self-indulgent (2 Jn. 2:15-17)
- Lustful (Mt. 5:27-30)
- Covetous (Num. 22-24)
- Preying on the weak...

- Don't Turn Back (2 Pt. 2:20-22)

- Why would we return to our captors after being rescued?
- Deliberate disobedience must be avoided (Lk. 12:47-48; Heb. 6:4-7; 10:26).

- Conclusion

- What do we have to be worried about?
- We need not fear because God's faithful Word is something to hold on to...

Words of Wisdom

I believe in the sun even when it is not shining.
I believe in love even when feeling it not. I believe in God, even when he is silent.
