How Can I Live and Be Well?

"And Moses called all Israel, and said to them: Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your hearing today, that you may learn them and be careful to observe them" (Deuteronomy 5:1).

There are three points to being successful. Three things that will help me live and be well.

Hear the statutes and judgments of God. Hear God's words. How? Make sure you are present every time the church assembles. Make sure you truly listen to each lesson delivered by the teacher or preacher. Most churches have meetings at least three times weekly when Christians can come and hear messages of God delivered by faithful proclaimers of the word. Day by day we all can open our own Bibles and read (hear) God's messages. Get into this good habit of being a daily Bible reader.

Learn them. Learn the will of God. Study! Study! That takes time. Yes! That takes effort. Yes! But look at the blessings. We will learn who God is. One will learn His will for man. Through study of the Bible one will learn how to live. One will learn that only in Christ can we have salvation. I challenge each reader not to read or hear only, but to learn or know the commands of the Lord.

Observe them. Listening to the word of God is wonderful. Learning the will of God is a great blessing and attribute. The last step seems to be the most difficult. Observe the statutes and judgments of God. Too many are like the foolish man who heard the will of the Lord, but he did not do as he was told and thus his house fell when the storm came. Let us walk the walk and not just talk the talk. "But be doers of the word, and hearers only, deceiving yourselves" (James 1:22).

Now listen to Moses again. "You shall walk in all the ways which the Lord your God has commanded you, that you may live and that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which you shall possess" (Deuteronomy 5:33).
