Teach Us What We Shall Do for the Child

"Then Manoah prayed to the Lord, and said, 'O my Lord, please let the man of God whom you sent come to us again and teach us what we shall do for the child who will be born'" (Judges 13:8, NIV).

A child was promised by God to Manoah and his wife. She was barren, but God said, "You will conceive and bear a son" Judges 13:3b. What great and wonderful news! When Manoah's wife told her husband the news, Manoah prayed to God that they might be taught what they should do for this child. My, how we need such an attitude today! Let us look at five things today in the training of children.

Children need training. They do not grow unto godly individuals by chance or accident. They must be trained. Example is wonderful and necessary, but there must be more. Children must be taught the word of God daily. Make sure that our children hear about God, Jesus and His church every day.

The training of children must begin early. Do not postpone this training. If a child can learn a language by age two, then he can learn many things about God and Jesus Christ. Every day you delay makes it that much harder to train the child.

The supreme end of the training of children should be to fit them for the service of God. Manoah needed information. Samson would be born into their family. Children are gifts from God. Children must be taught to serve Him. Do they know His commandments? Do they know of God's great love? They will not, unless we parents teach them.

The chief responsibility of the training of children rests with parents. Elders are to train. Preachers can help. Bible class teachers must do their part, but parents have the chief responsibility. You cannot delegate that work to someone else.

Guidance for the training of children must be sought from God. Manoah and his wife asked for guidance from God. God heard their prayer and answered, telling them what to do. Dads, pray to God for guidance. Moms, do the same. Search His word and see what the Bible says about training children. Teach them each day! Make sure they are present for every Bible class and period of worship at the church building. Pray to God that you will do this for your children and their eternity.
