The Children of Our Faith

The Bible says, "When your children say to you, 'what do you mean by this service?' you shall say, "It is the sacrifice of the Lord's Passover" (Exodus 12:26-27). The Passover feast became one of the most important Israelite celebrations. It commemorates God delivering the Hebrews from Egyptian slavery. God wanted the memorial to be passed on to every generation following so no one would forget His faithfulness.

The question comes to you and me: Will our faith have children? Will our children see in us the urgency of serving God? Will they pick up on the subtle cues of what is right and wrong? Will worshipping God as almighty creator be as important to them? Will there still be people serving the Lord and worshipping Him when my grandchildren come around? What about their kids? The only way our children can have faith is if our faith has children!

Moses gave the Israelites a rubric for accomplishing this task in Deuteronomy 6:7-9. We've got to teach our children diligently, carefully, and intentionally. God's message should be so important that we would discuss it and live it in any and every situation. My mom writes little pieces of scripture out and strategically places them around the house (bathroom mirror, refrigerator door etc...). This literal approach is effective because you can't help mulling it over as you groom or sneak a snack.

How can you and I make this a practical opportunity? How can we live in a way that our children know we believe in Jesus Christ with all our hearts? This may sound overly simplistic but, ACTUALLY BELIEVE IT! If our faith is genuine, we will show them consistent actions to prove that faith, because they will be natural.

Thoughts from Chris Wheat

Pray Up! (Proverbs 15:29)

Reality: The level of connection I have with God, depends on the relationship with, and the trust I have in, Jesus!

- Who Can Pray to God? (Isaiah 59:2)

• Who are “the wicked”? (Romans 3:23; Proverbs 15:8; 21:13; 28:9)

• We have a big problem! (Psalm 24:4-7; Matthew 27:46, 51; 1 Peter 2:24; Hebrews 4:16; 7:25; 10:19-22)

- How Do We Pray to God? (Proverbs 28:13; Hebrews 12:5-13)

- Lessons? (Luke 18:13)

Bible Trivia

Answer: Who is the first prophet mentioned in the Bible? Abraham (Genesis 20:7)

Question: Where did Jesus work His first miracle?
